

IBEW JOURNAL

December 2000

The Winner!

THE Winners!

The more than 300 entries for the 5th annual IBEW Photo Contest caught the variety of skills of IBEW members and captured that work from some unique angles.

Once again, the photographers' skills made the decisions difficult for the three judges: Bill Burke, Page One Photography; Patrick Reilly, executive assistant to International Secretary-Treasurer Edwin D. Hill and Carol Cipolari, supervisor for the IBEW Journal and Media Relations Department.

The Journal wishes to thank each and every contestant. Watch upcoming issues for details on the 2001 contest, which will be held earlier than usual due to the IBEW International Convention.

■ 1st Place appears on cover. ■

2nd Place

was captured by Mike Daughtry, Local 18, Los Angeles, California.

Building Repairmen Gary Emory and Robert Turner are shown working at the first Los Angeles aqueduct tunnel rehabilitation job for the City of Los Angeles Department of Water & Power.

3rd Place

winner Brother Gerald Kuch, Local 125, Portland, Oregon, photographed Brothers Pat Kadell (right), and Rod Derting changing a 115 KVA insulator during the Northwest Lineman Rodeo Contest.

H O N O R A B L E M E N T I O N S

Charlie Will Scott, Local 84, Atlanta, Georgia, caught Brother Craig Foster removing grounds during his first climb of a steel structure.

Tamara Brooks, Local 9, Chicago, Illinois, shows Gordon McGahan adjusting a switch.

Local 68, Denver, Colorado, member Christopher Colling, photographed his daughter Sadie Regan Colling as the Journal caught her interest.

Philip Jefferson, Local 94, Cranbury, New Jersey, had a unique perspective capturing (left to right), Larry Davis and Darryl Stith at Hope Creek Nuclear Station as they service a water pipe.

